But there are other products of the distillation of petroleum, of which naphtha is the most important, which are of light specific gravity, will catch fire from a blaze at ordinary temperatures, and of which the vapor is highly explosive when mixed, in certain proportions, with atmospheric air. Naphtha is far more dangerous than gun-powder, because its vapor will take fire at some distance from the liquid, while gunpowder will not ignite unless brought in contact with fire.

Unfortunately naptha will burn with a clear handsome light, and when mixed with kerosene it seems to improve it for illuminating purposes. Besides this, naptha is produced in large quantities in the distillation of petroleum, and no extensive use of it has been found, so that its market value is very low. Hence the great temptation to mix it with kerosene, and to use it for patent burning fluids, and hence the great importance of protecting the community from the sale of those fluids, and also from the sale of kerosene that will not stand the fire test, as it is called. There is no doubt that ninety-nine one-hundredths of all the loss of lives, amounting to hundreds every year, and of property mounting to millions every year, in In the World! this country from explosion of burning fluids, are caused by this use of napthe or of kerosene adulterated with nap-have already fully exposed the evils of this attempted monopoly," do.

To a certain extent there is a shadow of truth in these statements;—and precisely to the same extent is the Herald itself, as a member of the Associated Press, a party to the offences charged upon the Telegraph Company.

First, as to the attempted "monopoly." Some two or three years ago the Associated Press applied to the Company for a reduced rate of charges, as well as for greater facilities for the transmission of news. An arrangement was made by which the Company agreed to reduce the rates for dispatches to the newspaper Press, according to business done;—that is to say, on dispatches of a certain length, one-third the regular rates were to be deducted; for dispatches twic, as long there was to be a deduction of one-half; and on dispatches still longer, two-thirds of the regular charges were to be 'deducted. The Company also put up sevaral extra wires between Washington and New York exclusively for Press business, so that Congressional proceedings and other long reports could be Messra. Geo. C. ira wires between Washington and New Yorx exclusively for Press business, so that Congressional proceedings and other long reports conid betransmitted promptly and without interruption; increased largely the number of their operators and, in very many ways, made special provision to accommodate the Press. All this involved very great expense, and the charges for the service were put at so low a rate that that no great profit, indeed none at all from the very long veronts, could be lealized.

The Company proposed, therefore, that in consideration of these concessions, the Press, on its part, should agree to give them all its business—to employ its lines exclusively for their special dispatches from which some profit might be expected, as well as its long, general reports which, of themselves alone, careely paid the cost of their transmission. The Associated Press made this arrangement, and the Herald, with the rest, approved it. They all regarded what they got, in reduction of charges, increase of facilities, &c., as a full equivalent for what they gave.

Signed by JAMES G. BENNETT, and other Proprietors. We hope the practice will be continued, and that those who furnish the information to the papers, will be more particular to state the kind of burning fluied that explodes and produces the sad results in each case. We suspect that there is a very great degree of ignorance upon this subject among the people, and that the people generally agreed upon in return.

Since the high price of alcohol and turpentine, nearly all the burning fiulds in common use, of whatever name, are composed of the distilled products of petroleum. Of these products, a certain portion to which the name of Kerosene has been applied, if distilled carefully, will not catch fire from a lighted taper at a lower temperature than 110 degrees, and is perfectly safe, with ordinary care, as a burning fiuld. At ordinary temperatures, a lighted taper per put into it will be extinguished as per put into it will be extinguished as a lower temperature per put into it will be extinguished as a lower temperature per put into it will be extinguished as a lower temperature per put into it will be extinguished as a lower temperature per put into it will be extinguished as a lower temperature per put into it will be extinguished as a lower temperature per put into it will be extinguished as a lower temperature. ing in the shape of monopoly about it.

Every man in every city and town in the whole country stands on precisely the same footing with every other. And all the vague charges in which the Herald deals of favoritism, exclusiveness, &c., against the Telegraph Com-pany are without a shadow of founda-pany are without a shadow of foundation.

There is a very short way of ending all the evils of which the Herald complains, so far as it is itself concerned.
Let it leave the Associated Press—as it spent four or five mouths last year in threatening to do. It can thus do something toward correcting evils of which it complains so loudly, but to which it persists in being a party.

Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a does of these PHBs makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and removating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to every body, and where the virtues of this PHI are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption. Probably never before in the whole hist

Through a long-es of years, and among most of the races of it has risen higher and higher in heir estima, as it has become better known. Its uniform racter and power to cure the various affection be lungs and through have made it known as a rererous affections of the throat and lungs. As a persistion against sudden attacks of Crossp. it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as a re sometimes subject to colds and coughs, a hould be provided with this antidote for them. Although settled Consumption is thought in urable, still great numbers of cases, where the disasse seemed settled, have been completely cured and the patient restored to sound health by the herry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery cer the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that is most obstinate of them yield to it. When noth gelse could reach them, under the Cherry Pectral they subside and the subside of them. Singers and Proofs of Property is a statement of the wholly carried by it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly carried by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is un necessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities
